Parking at St. Lawrence Church: At the last funeral Mass (and at numerous others over the years) cars were parked in one long row with no room to get to the available spaces behind them. We either need people to be more conscientious on their own when parking, no parking line on that lot (assuming people would heed them), or volunteers at funerals to help with parking. Your feedback is welcome.

There will not be a need to travel from house to house. The forms take about 5 minute to complete. For those of you, who have forms already completed; please return them when you come to Mass. Over the years, many form of prayer have evolved whereby Christians have expressed care for the sick among us. Shrines associated with healings, such as St. Anne de Beaupre, have welcomed pilgrims and have developed prayers and sacramentals (such as St. Anne's oil) to assist the faithful in their prayer and solicitude for the sick. In recent years, many Christians have found solace and comfort in "healing masses" which tend to a more charismatic form of expression. All of these are valuable and worthy means to bring our illnesses to the Lord in faith and prayer. However, the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick remains the premiere form of prayer for the sick. One of the seven sacraments of the Church, for many years it languished as a ritual intended for those nearing death. The liturgical reform of Vatican II has returned this sacrament to its central focus - the sacramental prayer for the seriously ill in our midst. On Sunday June 12, at 3 p.m. St. Marguerite Bourgeoys Parish, 40 Cabot St. Sydney, will host a communal celebration of the Sacrament of the Sick. Several priests will be available to anoint those who present themselves for the Sacrament. All are welcome to attend the celebration; the attendance of family and friends is a visible expression of support for the sick person. But the actual anointing is intended for those who are suffering from serious medical issues. This would include those who are undergoing treatment for serious illness, those who suffer from chronic physical or mental illness which impacts on their daily lives and activities, those preparing for surgery, those involved in long term recovery and rehabilitation therapies, and those involved in any stage of palliative care. This celebration is part of our parish designation as a pilgrim church for the year of mercy. All are welcome and we extend a special welcome to the people of St. Joseph's Parish, Port Hawkesbury who are making a special parish pilgrimage to join us on June 12. Their pastor, Fr. Conrad Edwards will be the guest homilist for this celebration.

For those who wish to contribute to the Diocesan collection for the relief fund for the victims of the fire in Fort MacMurray, we will accept envelopes at the Masses of June 4 and 5 and June 11 and 12 at St. Marguerite Bourgeoys Parish. Please include your name and envelope number for income tax purposes.

We believe alcoholism is a family illness and that changed attitudes can aid recovery. Al-Anon has but one purpose; to help the families of alcoholics. We do this by practicing the Twelve Steps, by welcoming and giving comfort to families of alcoholics, and by giving understanding and encouragement to the alcoholic. If you think we can help there is a meeting each Wednesday at 8:00 pm at St. Paul's Parish Basement. Meetings last for approximately one hour.
