Remembrance Day November 11: Canadians pause today to remember those who died in war and to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world. This is a day for peace, to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community and as a nation to bring God’s peace into the world. This is a day when a believing community should rededicate itself by prayer and action to the ideals Jesus gives us in Beatitudes.

Changes for Pastor’s Visits at St. Martha’s Hospital: New privacy regulations at St. Martha’s Hospital do not permit clergy to see a list of their parishioners who are patients in the hospital. Therefore, I will need to be informed by the family or patient themselves if the patient wishes me to visit them in hospital. My usual day for visiting is Tuesday, so please inform me by phone before Sunday Mass (234-2387, Glebe house) if someone wants me to visit them. ~ Fr. Allan

Three Days but One Feast Celebrating the Triduum in the Parish: The Triduum liturgy is the culmination of the entire year and it makes sense that the community's Sunday experience influences their anticipation of Triduum. If our assemblies are not engaged by music, preaching, hospitality, or other sacramental encounters at the Sunday liturgy, they are not likely to seek out more of the same. It is common to think of our Sunday liturgies as "Little Easters," particularly because we celebrate the Risen Christ in every liturgy. Perhaps we also could consider Easter Sunday and thus Triduum, as "One Great Big Sunday" that is integrally connected to all other Sundays of the year. This larger framework can inform us how to plan, prepare, celebrate the Triduum, and balance the dialogue between Easter Sunday and all of the Sundays of the liturgical year. With this in mind parishes and individuals are invited to join a Livestream talk Three Days but One Feast- Celebrating the Triduum in the Parish offered by Fr. Bill Burke, Pastor of St. Marguerite Bourgeoys Parish, Sydney. This talk will take place on Tuesday, November 7, 2023, 7:00 PM, at St. Joseph Church, Port Hawkesbury, NS. This presentation will be available to watch live in our Diocesan Website (https:// www.antigonishdiocese.com). Pastors, parish pastoral council's, liturgy committee members and all interested parishioners are invited to login for this event.
